*Please be aware that this is a Politically Correct Wall.

It is not a physical boundary undemocratically imposed upon the public with the intention of segregating people of different beliefs, religions, colour, wealth, class, gender, sexuality or weight.

It should be made clear this wall does not agree, or disagree, with all of the various thoughts marked upon its surface by urban artists, poets and philosophers (graffitists). This wall does not condone the use of explicit language or phallic imagery, but also respects the human right to express oneself through the use of swearing or drawing penises.

The public should be aware that any rigorous activity against this wall may result in irritation and in prolonged cases, minor burns.

Be warned that as a demographically neutral structure, this wall may at times become a football goal for underprivileged children in the area. Be warned this may lead to low flying balls and begging.
